

Erwin G. Krasnow, Owner
Garvey Shubert & Barer Law Offices

While Erwin Krasnow will not be a Member or an officer of New Moon Communications, LLC firm, he will serve as the Company's Legal Counsel.

Erwin's experience in communications law is unusually extensive. He has been described as "a dean of the Washington communications bar" by the Legal Times, as a "super-lawyer of communications" by American Film magazine, and as "the guru of communications law" by the Broadcast Cable Financial Journal.

Erwin formerly served as Senior Vice President and General Counsel of the National Association of Broadcasters and as Administrative Assistant to the late Congressman Torbert H. Macdonald, Chairman of the House Communications and Power Subcommittee. He has served on graduate and law school faculties at Ohio State, American, Temple, George Washington, Catholic and Georgetown Universities.

Erwin is co-author of several books, including The Politics of Broadcast Regulation, 100 Ways to Cut Legal Fees and Manage Your Lawyer, An Insider's Guide to Radio Station Acquisition Contracts, Radio Deals: A Step by Step Guide, and FCC Lobbying: A Handbook of Insider Tips and Practical Advice and has written over 250 articles and monographs on communications law and FCC decision making.

Described by Paul Kagan Associates as "one of the broadcast industry's leading dealmakers" and by Radio Business Report as "a preeminent communications lawyer who knows the business of buying and selling radio stations," Erwin has represented sellers and buyers of broadcasting, cable and telecommunications properties in transactions totaling well in excess of $21 billion.

Erwin is the Founding Director and Vice Chairman of Broadcast Capital, Inc., a minority broadcast investment fund; Director and Vice Chairman of the Minority Media & Telecommunication Council; Washington counsel to the Broadcast Cable Financial Management Association; former Trustee of the Federal Communications Bar Association Foundation; and past President of the Library of American Broadcasting. He has served as Co-Chairman of the Communications Law Committee of the Federal Bar Association; Treasurer and member of the Executive Committee of the Federal Communications Bar Association; President of the Capitol Hill Bar Association; and Co-Chairman of the Communications Law Committee, Administrative Law Section of the American Bar Association.
